

there is a concentration of such permits. If there is a substantial increase in One Time Event Permits with authorization to go beyond 2:00 a.m., a limit would be placed on the number of such permits that could be issued in a year. In either case, the Entertainment Commission would conduct a study and hold a hearing on this issue, as would the Board of Supervisors or a Board committee, within specified time frames.